The family centers of Spandau warmly welcome to you dear all family's

At our family centers you will find many different offers for all shapes and sizes of families with their children such as father-mother-families, single parents, same-sex life partnerships with children, immigrated families and patchwork-families.

Here, you will have the opportunity to meet other parents, to exchange as well as take courses and participate in events. Furthermore we offer you advice and support in regard of questions of everyday life!

Come and pass by for a tea or coffee and find out more about our particular offers or give us a call in one of our family centers!

We look forward to your visit!
